Dear, Josh,

I hope you are blessed by God during this war. If you are on a ship I hope you don't get sea sick and I hope you don't get bombed. I go back to school tomorrow how is Marsia? I'm doing fine in school my class in learning our multiplication. I joined Antioch Baptist church.

My granddaddy has had the flu and Colby has been sick. Is it cold up there it's cold here.

Did you and Marsia celebrate the New Year by shooting fireworks.

I've started premier soccer in Fayetteville.

Did you get any snow up in North Carolina?

I bet I could beat you in pool I have got good now. The Georgia Bulldogs won the sugar bowl now there going to the super bowl. The Falcons won against The green Bay packers. We are having vegetable soup and spaghetti, rolls, and corn bread for dinner.

Love,
Brandon Hawkins
